O R D E R:

In terms of Chapter II of the RFCTLARR Act, 2013, 1st read above, whenever the Government intends to acquire land for a public purpose, Social Impact Assessment (SIA) study should be carried out in the affected area in consultation with respective local body.

2. In the reference 4th read above, the Chairman & Managing Director, Singareni Collieries Company Limited has informed that the SCCL is in urgent need of certain small extent of lands for its working coal mines and the same are being acquired by invoking the provisions of RFCTLARR Act, 2013. Most of them are agricultural lands situated in middle of or adjacent to SCCL acquired lands and does not involve displacement of people. It is stated that in view of small extents of lands, following Social Impact Assessment Study (SIA) is time consuming and due to which land acquisition may be delayed for years and that there will be no new social impact.

3. In light of the above, the SCCL while referring Telangana State Land Acquisition (Consent Award, Voluntary Acquisition and Lump sum payment towards Rehabilitation and Resettlement) Rules, 2017 issued in G.O.Ms.No.120, Revenue Department, dated 30.06.2017, stated that grounding of new coal mines and extension of existing coal mines are substantially delayed due to the procedure in land acquisition and as a result, SCCL will not be in a position to reach set out targets to the existing and new power plants apart from other industries in the State and that if coal is not produced and supplied as per demand from time to time, operation of power projects and other industries will be affected and consequently lift irrigation projects, irrigation under wells and borewells will be affected; industrial production will be hampered and amenities to general public will also be affect.

4. In view of the above, the SCCL has stated that for the following ongoing mines, for which land has already been acquired, certain small extents of balance lands are due to be acquired under RFCTLARR Act, 2013 and requested for exemption from SIA study in public interest.
